

Paul Jonathon Brandon Rehabilitation Case Manager

BSc (Hons) Physiotherapy

Expertise

- Orthopaedics injuries and conditions
- Musculoskeletal injury and conditions
- Rheumatological conditions
- Pain management
- Occupational health
- Return to work/fitness for work
- Multi-trauma rehabilitation
- Assessment for equipment and care packages to support independent living
- Ergonomic assessments
- Functional assessments

Profile

- Paul qualified as Physiotherapist in 1995. He began working within orthopaedics, musculoskeletal management and sports injuries for the NHS, privately and the military, including the Junior Olympic Diving Squad.
- Paul moved into community rehabilitation, palliative care and case management, then to occupational health for the NHS and most recently at Amazon.
- Paul has broad experience of managing acute injury, rehabilitation and progressing clients to return to work and full function, including high level performance sport.

Testimonial

"I am passionate about problem solving and overcoming obstacles for clients. Focused rehabilitation adds such value to recovery, and managing clients through to full function or back to work gives total professional satisfaction."

Continued Professional Development

- Introduction to Occupational Health (ACPOHE) 2015
- Enhancing palliative care skills 2018

Professional Memberships

- HCPC (Health and Care Professions Council)
- CSP (Chartered Society of Physiotherapy)

Location & Coverage

- Kingsbridge Devon
- South / South West